Isaman in classic form at Horse Country Arena in Delta

DELTA, CO — The NBHA CO-10 reigning Senior 1D Champion apparently isn't satisfied with just being the Senior Champion, she had the 2007 Open Championship on her mind as well on Sat., May 19, 2007. District 10 held its fourth race of the season at the Horse Country Arena in Delta and Pam Isaman ran away with the Open 1D win and the Senior 1D win. Riding the black Paint mare Heidi's Classic, Isaman cleaned house in Delta. Competing for prize money and points against 71 other competitors Isaman took the top spot. A time of 17.697 on a standard pattern is a decent time by any barrel racer's account but in the Horse Country Arena on Saturday it proved to be admirable. Western Colorado heat and dry ground conditions made for somewhat less than ideal conditions but Isaman stepped up to the task and captured the win against all odds.

Just a few miles from home Nancy Deans rode the flashy gray gelding Stalking to the Open 2D win. Deans, a race producer in her own right took advantage of the NBHA coming to town and collected a big paycheck for a few seconds worth of fun.

National High School Finals Rodeo Qualifier and Olathe, CO cowgirl Amber Greenhalgh enjoyed the Colorado State High School Rodeo Association's hiatus and used the time productively to try and work through some issues with various barrel horses and figure out her next move toward another Nationals Qualification. Greenhalgh rode the bay mare, Suze, to a smooth Open 3D win. She jockeyed two other mounts as well.

Another Olathe cowgirl DeeDee Powell grabbed the Open 4D win. Powell, a non member, gave up her right to points in the association's year end standings. First place points were awarded to Andrea Gorbett of Grand Junction on her Dash Ta Fame gelding, Dash of Fame.

Rylie Gardner and Shanna Wilgus turned in exactly the same times to split the Youth 1D win. Gardner, an NBHA Colorado State Youth 1D Champion and Wilgus an NBHA CO-10 Youth 3D Champion went head to head and split the win and the first place points.

Rifle's Taylor Gore took the Youth 3D win aboard the sorrel and white Paint mare called Buggy. Gore would also collect Open 4D points for her efforts.

Little Hayden Gardner, 6, of Parachute was the Youth 4D winner. Aboard Concho Brillo Gardner turned in a flawless performance and an excellent display of pint sized horsemanship for the win.

Linda Tibbits and Sail Blue Money were the Senior 2D winners of the day. The smooth running gray gelding would also carry Tibbits to a paycheck in the Open 2D.

Olathe, CO Senior runner Penny Kysar and

Pam Isaman apparently isn't content with the just the Senior 1D title, she marches herself into the top spot in the Open 1D as well the beautiful palomino gelding Ditto won the Senior 3D. They would narrowly miss out on Open 3D points as well.

Next NBHA CO-10 barrel race will be Sat., June 16 at the Rio Blanco County Fairgrounds in Meeker, CO. For more information on upcoming races, point standings, photos see the website at www.NBHACO-10.freeservers.com, call Director Denneane Northcutt or email abcpro@earthlink.net
