District Finals wraps up 2004 CO-10 season

RIFLE, CO -- With District Finals Championship buckles on the line a higher than normal number of barrel racers braved the cold and the rain to compete at the National Barrel Horse Association's Colorado District 10 Finals on Sat.-Sun., Oct. 23-24 in Rifle, CO. The last weekend of races for the year saw tough competition and friendly comradery. Many year end saddle races came down to the wire with only one point separating some Champions from Reserve Champions.

The District 10 season is on hiatus until the Spring. For upcoming events and more information on the NBHA log onto www.NBHACO-10.freesevers.com or call 970/948-4400. Interested barrel racers are always welcome and encouraged to get involved in the sport of barrel racing.

Complete results from the weekend's events and year end point standings are as follows:
