Record number of entries for the Halls Clinic Barrel Race

RIFLE, CO -- The 2006 Brandie Halls Horsemanship and Barrel Racing Clinic wrapped up on Sat., April 22 at the Garfield County Fairgrounds, Indoor Arena in Rifle, CO. Sun., April 23 saw several clinic participants put their new skills to effective use winning prize money and points toward year end awards. A record 161 entries completed the cloverleaf pattern and $3,592 was paid back in prize money.

Clinic participant HeiDee Latham took the lead early on from the #6 draw position. Latham's time of 15.173 set the pace and held through the next 68 runners. With two runners left to go non-member Mykah Mahaney, Grand Junction changed everything. Mahaney's time of 14.985 was the fast time of the day and set the pace for the other divisions. Only a handful of 14 second runs have ever been recorded in the Rifle arena.

Sharon Colunga, Fruita, and Miss Jewel Air took the Open 2D win and pocketed $255 for their 15.566 seconds worth of work. Colunga also captured five Open 2D points toward year end standings.

Becky Carson, Loma, was once again toward the top of the leader board in the Open 3D on Razor Wire. Carson moves into the lead in the Open 3D standings on the young bay horse. Carson would also collect money in the Senior race and in the newly added Fundraiser race.

Jim's Classy Man carried Juanita Satterfield, Parachute, to the Open 4D win. Satterfield would collect Senior prize money as well.

In Youth competition another Brandie Halls student, Shanna Wilgus, Montrose exhibited perfect barrel racing posture and won the Youth 1D. Wilgus participated in the clinic on a young buckskin horse but was forced to switch to her more seasoned horse when the young horse came up lame. The move proved to be a positive one giving Wilgus her fastest time ever in the Rifle arena, the Youth 1D win and she celebrated with a cartwheel in the arena after her run.

The contestant who traveled the furthest, Shadow Tatum, Nucla made the drive worthwhile taking the Youth 3D win and the five first place points in that division.

Youth 4D prize money was won by Kendra Parker, Eagle and Ghost. Parker had given up a high school rodeo to be in attendance at the NBHA race and made her appearance worthwhile.

Former NBHA Colorado District 4 Director Arthene Robins, Austin, once again took the Senior 1D win and firmly planted herself at the top of the Senior 1D standings. Robins also would take the 2D win in the Fundraiser race.

Mary Satterfield, Parachute, and her clinic horse made a strong showing at their first barrel race ever winning the Senior 2D. Satterfield gained points in the Senior 1D on her seasoned horse as well.

Senior 3D prize money and points went to Barb Steele and Chance Fantasy Bar. Chance had been absent from competition in Rifle for several years due to injury but made a great comeback with prize money and points.

New to NBHA CO-10 barrel races was the Fundraiser Race. For $25 contestants could carry over their time from an Open, Youth or Senior run or choose to run again for a second chance at prize money. With 45 entries the Fundraiser paid on a 4D format with Tina Collins and the Appaloosa mare Cheynoah taking the 1D win. Collins also won prize money and points in the Open race.

Little miss Rylie Gardner, Parachute sat square in the middle of her 10 seat and looked down the ears of Hummer to earn Youth 1D points and the Fundraiser 3D win. Throughout the two days of clinic Halls had instructed Gardner to not look at each barrel as she turned in and it was a noticeable improvement when the penny was on the post and Gardner was running the cloverleaf for real.

Connie Lyster, Craig and her bay filly Shesha Dandy Misfit took the Fundraiser 4D win. Lyster provided barrel race participants with samples of her famous salsa and chips and proved that she was hot places other than just the kitchen with her barrel racing run.

The next NBHA CO-10 barrel race will be on Sat., May 20 at the Eagle County Fairgrounds Outdoor Arena in Eagle, CO. The barrel race will be held in conjunction with the 2006 Rocky Mountain Oyster Feed and Gymkhana. For complete results, upcoming race information, Shanna Wilgus put her new clinic skills to good use, running her fastest time ever in Rifle and winning the Youth 1D.
