Northern Colorado back to back smoked by Anderson

CRAIG, CO -- Stifling temperatures across Western Colorado made the trek to Northern Colorado a welcome reprieve from the heat. Rising in elevation meant a drop in temperatures which was welcome by barrel racers and barrel horses alike.

A hectic weekly rodeo schedule across the Western Slope combined with the scheduling of the National Little Britches Rodeo Finals made for a small turnout at the back to back barrel races in Craig and Steamboat. A small turnout, however, did not mean that the competition was weak.

Parachute, CO's Mary Anderson drove to Craig to set the arena on fire aboard the Watson-bred LW Smoky Royale. Anderson's time of 17.872 was fast enough to take the Open 1D and Fundraiser 1D wins in Craig and earn her both first place checks. Barrel trouble in Steamboat Springs would take her out of contention for money in the Open and the Fundraiser but never dampened her spirits.

Pam Isaman, Crawford, CO had the furthest distance to travel and made the trek worthwhile. Isaman and her awesome Paint mare Heidi's Classic won the Open 2D in Craig and the Senior 1D in Steamboat Springs. Isaman and her husband made the most of the barrel racing weekend playing tourist at the Steamboat Springs PRCA rodeo on Saturday night and getting a taste of how the rodeo half lives.

Erica Dixon, Fruita, CO and Pacific Baca Run were hot off a Youth 1D win in Rifle only a week earlier and managed to win the big money in the Open 3D at Craig. Dixon would also collect a Youth 1D check in Craig and finish in the Youth 1D points in Steamboat Springs.

The Hidalgo look alike Paint gelding, Spook, ridden by Dawn Mutchelknaus of McCoy won the Open 4D in Craig.

Nellie Thomson, Kremmling, CO would take the Open 1D at the Steamboat Springs Rodeo Grounds on Sunday. Thomson made her inaugural NBHA CO-10 runs worthwhile and put her name in the record books.

Newlywed Celia Avaritte, Austin, CO aboard Quick Tammy captured the Open 2D win in Steamboat as well as Open 1D points in Craig.

Youth member, Kendra Parker, Eagle, CO would cash in big with an Open 3D win in Steamboat. Parker and her gray gelding Ghost, aka Clabber Skeet would also gain valuable Youth 1D points on Sunday.

Connie Lyster, Craig, CO, sponsored by Union Cellular would take all the Open 4D money winning the Open 4D in Steamboat as well as the Fundraiser 4D.

Shanna Wilgus, Montrose, CO and the Paint mare CR Skip Hi Sierra would take the Youth 1D win in Craig while the reigning State Youth 1D Champion C.J. Vondette, Rifle, CO would take first and second place in the Youth 1D in Steamboat Springs. Barrel trouble in Craig would take Vondette out of contention for points and money on Saturday.

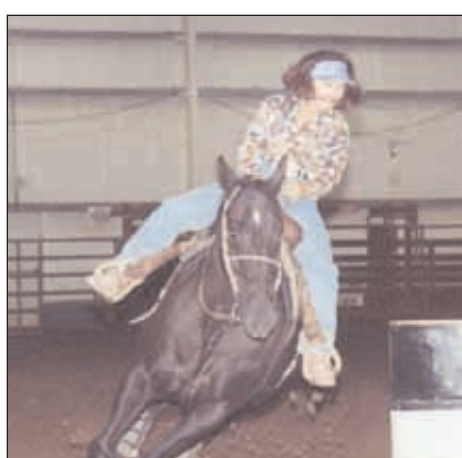

Hometown barrel racer and former NBHA National Champion Marina Bull and Real Easy Randy would collect Open 1D money and the Fundraiser 1D win from their home arena.

Next NBHA CO-10 race will be at the Horse Country Arena in Delta, CO on Sat., Aug. 12. For more information see the website at www.NBHACO-10.freeservers.com or call Director Denneane Northcutt at 970/948-4400.
